

Sunday, June 21 — Salzburg: free morning + Sound of Music tour

Big picture: gentle morning near the hotel, then the 2:00 PM Sound of Music tour (~4 hrs) returning to Mirabellplatz.

Free morning — choose your pace

- Relaxed (recommended): Walk straight into Mirabell Gardens beside the hotel — the Pegasus Fountain and the steps featured in "Do-Re-Mi." It's free and quiet early. Cross the Makartsteg (love-lock footbridge) to the Old Town, browse Getreidegasse (Mozart's Birthplace is at #9 — no need to go in), and have coffee on Domplatz by the cathedral. All flat, all cobblestones.
- If you want more: Ride the Festungsbahn funicular up to Hohensalzburg Fortress for the best city views and ~1,000 years of history. Aim for the 8:30 AM opening for cool, clear, uncrowded views; ~1.5–2 hrs including the funicular. Be back near Mirabellplatz with time to spare before the tour.

HEADS UP · Protect the tour start time

Whatever you do in the morning, be back at Mirabellplatz by ~1:40 PM. The tour will not wait, and it's the one fixed commitment of your Salzburg stay. The relaxed option is the safe pairing precisely because it keeps you near the meeting point.

The Sound of Music tour, step by step

1. Be at the Panorama Bus Terminal, Mirabellplatz (corner of Hubert-Sattler-Gasse 1, in front of St. André Church) by 1:45 PM. Tour starts 2:00 PM; confirmation PT26-136311 (Panorama Tours, +43 662 883 211 0).
2. It's a comfortable air-conditioned motorcoach with a live guide. Expect film locations in and around the city, then a scenic drive into the Salzkammergut Lake District — past Fuschlsee and Wolfgangsee — with the soundtrack playing and an optional sing-along.
3. Photo stops typically include views over Lake Wolfgang / St. Gilgen and the exterior of Schloss Leopoldskron (the lake-side villa shots). The grand finale is the village of Mondsee and St. Michael's Basilica, where the wedding scene was filmed — with about an hour of free time for the church, a coffee, and apple strudel.
4. The coach returns to Mirabellplatz around 6:00 PM — a 2-minute walk from your hotel.

Not included: meals, gratuities, and any souvenirs/snacks in Mondsee. Bring a little cash and a light layer.

Evening

You'll arrive back right by the hotel. Keep it easy — dinner around Mirabellplatz or a stroll back into the lit Old Town. Tomorrow is the first of the two big travel days, with a 7:20 AM pickup, so pack tonight and set out your transfer voucher and tickets.
