

Wednesday, June 24 — Lucerne cruise + free afternoon

Big picture: a relaxed 1-hour Discovery Cruise (open voucher — go when you like), then a flexible afternoon.

The cruise — how the open voucher works

1. Walk to Pier 7, opposite the Hotel Schweizerhof on the lakefront (~5–8 min from your hotel along the quay).
2. Your voucher (89794, Lake Lucerne Navigation Co.) is open — no reservation, no fixed time. Just turn up for any departure and present it. June daily departures: 11:00, 12:15, 1:30, 2:45, 4:00, 5:15 (the 11:00 runs May 23–Jul 31, so it's available to you).
3. Arrive at least 15 minutes early. The cruise is about 1 hour, returning to the same pier. (Voucher is 2nd-class seating on board — fine for a scenic loop.)

Cruise vendor: +41 41 367 6767. Pick a late-morning or midday sailing so your afternoon stays open.

Free afternoon — two ways to play it

- Relaxed: Long lakeside lunch near Schwanenplatz/Seebrücke, then the Lion Monument and Glacier Garden if you skipped them yesterday. Easy evening.
- Mount Pilatus (only if weather is excellent): Take Bus 1 to Kriens (~10 min from the center), then the panorama gondola + aerial cableway up to 2,128 m — mostly seated, dramatic, ~3 hrs round trip. Dinner in the Old Town after (Wirtshaus Galliker or Old Swiss House for Swiss classics).

Don't double up the big mountains

If you did Rigi yesterday, make today's afternoon relaxed unless Pilatus weather is genuinely spectacular — two mountain excursions back-to-back is a lot, and you've got real Alpine days coming in Mürren. Save your legs.
