Daily Guide

Friday, June 19 — Frankfurt Airport to Stuttgart

Objective: Arrive in Germany and get to Stuttgart by train. Afternoon and evening are flexible (family time).

Confirmed train

Train	Depart	Arrive	Coach / Seats	Notes

Plain-English steps

- At Frankfurt Airport, follow signs to Fernbahnhof / Long-Distance Trains (this is the long-distance station attached to the airport, not the city Hbf).
- Be at the platform 20–30 minutes early. Match the train number — ICE 915 — not just the destination.
- Board Coach 28, seats 32 & 33.

Free time — Stuttgart afternoon

RELAXED

- Grand palace square, fountains, Königstrasse shopping — flat, easy 30–45 min stroll.

Old Town walk + Mercedes-Benz Museum

- Same historic loop, then ~15-min taxi to the Mercedes-Benz Museum.
- Striking spiral architecture, 160 vehicles; elevators between levels. ~€16/adult, 2–3 hrs.

Recommendation: Because this is arrival day after an overnight flight, lean relaxed unless you're feeling strong.

Stuttgart lodging — not booked through Europe Express

There is no Stuttgart hotel in your Europe Express packet — this night appears to be with family. Keep your separate Stuttgart lodging / family contact details with this page.

Flat, easy.	BALANCED Hohensalzburg Fortress + Old Town stroll • FestungsBahn funicular up to the hilltop fortress — best city views, ~1.5–2 hrs. • Aim for the 8:30 AM opening for quiet, cool, clear views; walk down through Old Town after.

Evening

After the tour (ends ~6 PM at Mirabellplatz), have dinner near Mirabellplatz / Old Town or head back to Hotel Bristol.

Monday, June 22 — Salzburg to Lucerne

Objective: One of the two big travel days. Private transfer, then three trains, then a driver to the hotel.

Munich is the key connection

Steps 1→2 connect in Munich with ~27 minutes. If the Salzburg–Munich train is late and you miss Train 194, go to the DB/ÖBB information desk and show your tickets. Do not discard any tickets or vouchers.

Tuesday, June 23 — Lucerne (full free day)

Objective: Use Lucerne as your base. Choose an easy city day or a scenic Mount Rigi day.

Your hotel, Ameron Luzern Hotel Flora, is ~5 minutes from the lake, Old Town, Chapel Bridge, and the rail station.

RELAXED

Lucerne Old Town + Chapel Bridge

- Walk the Kapellbrücke (Europe's oldest covered wooden bridge, c.1365) and painted Old Town squares.
- See the Lion Monument; long lakeside lunch. Flat, 1.5–2 hrs of walking.

BALANCED

Mount Rigi half-day + Old Town afternoon

- Boat from Lucerne to Vitznau, then cogwheel train to Rigi Kulm (1,798 m). Gentler than Pilatus.
- Café terraces and level paths up top; back to Lucerne mid-afternoon. 4–5 hrs.

Recommendation: If the weather is clear, Rigi is the best balanced choice. If it's hazy or you're tired after the long Jun 22 travel day, take the relaxed city day.

Mountain weather rule

For any mountain day (Rigi, Pilatus, Schilthorn), check the live cable-car webcams that morning before buying tickets. If the peaks are clouded in, swap to the Old Town / lakeside option.

Wednesday, June 24 — Lucerne cruise + free afternoon

Objective: Use your Lake Lucerne cruise voucher, then a relaxed lakeside afternoon (or a mountain afternoon if the weather is excellent).

Confirmed activity — Lake Lucerne 1-hour Discovery Cruise

Voucher	Meeting point	Daily departures	Instructions
89794 (Lake Lucerne Navigation Co.)	Pier 7, opposite Hotel Schweizerhof	11:00*, 12:15, 1:30, 2:45, 4:00, 5:15 *11:00 runs May 23–Jul 31 only	Open voucher, no reservation needed. Arrive 15 min early and present the voucher.

Cruise vendor phone: +41 41 367 6767. Note your voucher is 2nd-class seating on the boat.

Free time — Lucerne afternoon

RELAXED Long lakeside lunch + Lion Monument • Lunch near Schwanenplatz / Seebrücke, then a 10–15 min walk to the Lion Monument. • Optional Glacier Garden next door (small museum, mirror maze) — easy 45–60 min.	BALANCED Mount Pilatus afternoon + Old Town dinner • Bus 1 to Kriens (~10 min), then panorama gondola + aerial cableway to 2,128 m. Mostly seated, ~3 hrs. • Do this only if the weather is clear; dinner in Old Town after.
--	---

Recommendation: Do the cruise earlier in the day, then decide by weather/energy. If you did Rigi on Jun 23, keep this afternoon relaxed unless Pilatus weather is truly excellent.

Thursday, June 25 — Lucerne to Mürren

Objective: The other complex travel day — transfer, train, train, bus, then cable car into Mürren.

Private transfer to Lucerne station

- Pickup: Ameron Luzern Hotel Flora at 8:20 AM (EdelSwiss, confirmation 61822).

Hotel

Hotel	Address	Phone	Confirmation / Room	Notes
Hotel Mürren Palace	Hohenmatte 1086, Swiss Alps 3825	+41 33 856 9999	218-3716156 Double Room Superior, B&B (3 nights)	City tax may be charged locally at checkout.

Friday, June 26 — Mürren (full free day)

Objective: Your first full Alpine day. Choose a gentle panoramic day or the iconic Schilthorn / Piz Gloria experience.

Mürren is a car-free village at 1,650 m above the Lauterbrunnen Valley. Everything is reachable by cable car, funicular, or a short walk.

RELAXED

Allmendhubel funicular + panorama lunch

- 4-minute funicular to Allmendhubel (1,907 m): sun loungers, Alpine Flower Park, mountain restaurant.
- No hiking required — just sit, eat, photograph the Eiger, Mönch, and Jungfrau.

BALANCED

Schilthorn / Piz Gloria (James Bond) + village stroll

- Cable car Mürren → Birg → Schilthorn (2,970 m): revolving Piz Gloria restaurant, Bond exhibit, viewing decks.
- All seated transit; skip the edge walks at Birg if you don't like heights. ~3–4 hrs.

Recommendation: If the weather is clear, make this the Schilthorn day — it's the signature Mürren outing. If clouds cover the peaks, save it and do Allmendhubel or a village day.

Evening

Keep it easy. Mürren is car-free and small — a slow village stroll or a drink on the hotel balcony is part of the experience.

Saturday, June 27 — Mürren (full free day)

Objective: A valley day, or a make-up day for whatever mountain option the weather blocked on Friday.

RELAXED

Lauterbrunnen Valley & Trümmelbach Falls

- Cable car to Grütschalp, then cogwheel down to Lauterbrunnen; see Staubbach Falls on the valley floor.
- Post bus to Trümmelbach Falls — ten glacial waterfalls inside the mountain, reached by elevator. 60–90 min.

BALANCED

Whichever big mountain you skipped + a gentle walk

- If Friday was Allmendhubel, do Schilthorn today (and vice versa). Mornings are clearer at altitude — go early.
- Add the easy Blumental Panorama Trail (~1¼ hrs, mostly flat, benches throughout) if energy allows.

Recommendation: Best pairing: Schilthorn on the clearest day, Lauterbrunnen Valley on the other. One big mountain day, one scenic recovery day.

Sunday, June 28 — Mürren to Basel

Objective: Leave the Alps and travel to Basel by cable car / bus / trains.

Transportation timeline

Step	Route	Time	Train / Seating	Note
1	Mürren LSMS → Stechelberg	9:51 AM – 9:55 AM	Cable car / local	Start early; stay on schedule.
2	Stechelberg → Lauterbrunnen Bf	10:05 AM – 10:18 AM	#41174 BUS	Bus segment.

4	Interlaken Ost → Basel	10:59 AM – 1:04 PM	#106 train / open seating	Open seating, 1st class.

All on one SBB e-ticket (confirmation 885359088419, open seating, routed via Bern–Olten). The ticket is flexible for the day, but these are the booked connections.

Monday, June 29 — Basel to Frankfurt Airport

Objective: Free Basel morning, then the afternoon train to Frankfurt Airport and the airport hotel.

Free time — Basel morning

RELAXED Old Town walk + Münster terrace views • Marktplatz with its bright-red 16th-c. Rathaus, then the Basler Münster cathedral. • Walk behind it to the Pfalz terrace for the best Rhine views. Long café break before collecting bags.	BALANCED Old Town + Rhine ferry crossing • Same Old Town walk plus a ride on a Münsterfähre — a ferry powered only by the Rhine current (~CHF 2, 5 min). • Cross, walk the far-bank promenade, ferry back. A quintessential Basel moment.

General Travel Notes

- On official rail tickets, dates appear as DD/MM/YYYY and times use the 24-hour clock. "Coach" means the train car number, not the class of service.
- "Open seating" means no assigned seat — sit in any open seat in your booked class (1st class on all your legs).
- European cities can have multiple stations. Always board and exit at the exact station on your ticket.
- Print your e-tickets and vouchers if you can, and keep digital copies too. Europe Express vouchers may be required in lieu of payment at hotels, tours, and transfers.
- City taxes are collected directly by hotels at checkout and can't be prepaid.
- Mountain days depend on visibility — check the cable-car webcams before committing to Rigi, Pilatus, or Schilthorn.
- Switzerland uses Swiss Francs (CHF); Germany and Austria use Euros. Cards work almost everywhere, but keep some cash for taxis and small stalls.
- Altitude note: Mürren (1,650 m) and the peaks above it are high. Ease into elevation, and go easy on alcohol/caffeine/salty food if you're sensitive.
