

Monday, June 22 — Salzburg to Lucerne (big travel day)

Big picture: 7:20 AM transfer → three trains (Salzburg→Munich→Zürich→Lucerne) → driver to the hotel. The Munich connection is the one to watch.

Morning transfer + the three trains

- 1. 7:20 AM: be in the Bristol lobby, bags ready. The Salzburg Limousine driver may be up to 15 min late in traffic; if needed call +43 664 216 361 3. Short ride to Salzburg Hbf.
- 2. Leg 1 — Salzburg → Munich, RE5, 8:05–10:21, open seating. Sit in any open 1st-class seat. This is a regional train, so no assigned seats.
- 3. Munich Hbf connection (~27 min): arrive 10:21, depart 10:48. Check the board for your Zürich train's platform. This is the tightest link of the day — move directly to the next platform.
- 4. Leg 2 — Munich → Zürich, Train 194 (EC), 10:48–14:28, Coach 2, Seats 14 & 16. Your only assigned-seat leg today; a scenic run toward the Alps.
- 5. Leg 3 — Zürich → Lucerne, Train 2629, 15:10–15:51, open seating, 1st class. Arrive Lucerne 3:51 PM.

Rail confirmations: K676457907 (ÖBB, legs 1–2) and the SBB Zürich→Lucerne leg. Note the printed tickets don't repeat every time — these come from your Europe Express rail vouchers.

HEADS UP · The Munich connection — your contingency

If Leg 1 runs late and you miss Train 194 in Munich, don't panic and don't board a random train. Go to the DB/ÖBB information desk in Munich Hbf, show your tickets, and ask for the next service to Zürich. Keep every ticket and voucher. If the delay will push your Lucerne arrival back, call EdelSwiss (+1 914-334-4709) as early as possible so the driver knows.

Lucerne arrival — tight transfer window

- Off the train at Lucerne, collect luggage and go to the taxi stand directly in front of the station. The EdelSwiss driver holds a signboard with your name (conf. 60736, a Mercedes E-Class).
- This transfer is guaranteed only within 15 minutes of the 3:51 arrival — much tighter than Salzburg. If your train is late or you can't spot the driver, call +1 914-334-4709 (EdelSwiss office +41 435 080 799) right away.
