

Thursday, June 25 — Lucerne to Mürren (big travel day)

Big picture: 8:20 AM pickup → train → train → bus → cable car up to car-free Mürren. Four legs, one ticket. Watch names, not just destinations.

Morning transfer — be early, window is tight

1. 8:20 AM: be in the Ameron lobby, bags ready (EdelSwiss, conf. 61822). This pickup is guaranteed only within 10 minutes of the scheduled time — the tightest of the trip — so be down a few minutes early. If needed call +1 914-334-4709.

The four-leg journey to Mürren

1. Lucerne → Interlaken Ost, train #3084, 9:24–11:17, open seating, 1st class. (A gorgeous run past the Brünig Pass — sit on the right where you can.)
2. Interlaken Ost → Lauterbrunnen, train #157, 11:34–11:56. Board the front section of the train — it splits at Zweilütschinen, and only the front goes to Lauterbrunnen.
3. Lauterbrunnen Bahnhof → Stechelberg, BUS #41187, 12:10–12:22. Exit the station, find the post-bus stop, ride to the Schilthornbahn valley station at Stechelberg.
4. Stechelberg → Mürren, cable car #219 (Schilthornbahn), 12:51–12:55. This is the brand-new direct gondola — the steepest cable car in the world — straight up to the village in ~4 minutes. Arrive Mürren 12:55 PM.

All four legs are on one SBB e-ticket (conf. 899240308847, open seating). Total ~3.5 hrs.

HEADS UP · Mürren is car-free — plan the last 100 yards

There are no taxis in Mürren. From the cable-car station it's about a 5-minute walk along the main street to Hotel Mürren Palace, with a short uphill near the end. Pack so you can roll/carry your bags that far, or call the hotel ahead — many Mürren hotels will help with luggage from the station if asked.
